GERMANY SIGNS PEACE TREATY

Chinese Delegates Refuse to Sign the Official Document

GREAT WAR WHICH HAS BEEN FELT IN THE WHOLE WORLD COMES TO A CLOSE FINALLY.

Versailles, June 28.—The Treaty of Peace which formally brought a close to the world war was signed this afternoon. The official delegates of Germany signed the document promptly at 5:12 p. m. and President Woodrow Wilson, heading the delegation from the United States signed the pact two minutes later being followed almost immediately by Premier David Lloyd-George, of England.

The official German delegates arrived at the palace at 3:08 p. m. and Premier Clemenceau called the meeting to order in two minutes after their arrival. In opening the ceremony Premier Clemenceau, president of the Peace Conference assured the German delegates that the text of the treaty was the same as had been furnished them before and then said: "I now invite you to sign."

British colonial representatives signed immediately after the British delegation. General Jan Smuts of South Africa signed under protest, issuing a long statement explaining his objection to the treaty.

Clemenceau signed at 3:23. The Chinese delegation refused to sign. The Japanese signed sixth, at 3:30.

The Chinese delegates were not present. They were reported to have sent to Peking for instructions. Clemenceau declared the proceedings closed at 3:50, the entire ceremony occupying 41 minutes.

The German delegation arrived here at 3 a. m. today. It consisted of Foreign Minister Hermann Mueller and Colonial Minister Johannes Bell. They were accompanied by a small staff of secretaries.

Every preparation had been completed for the ceremony beginning in the palace at 3 p. m.—9 a. m. Maysville time. It was expected to last at least three hours.

In addition to the treaty proper, the convention governing administration of the left bank of the Rhine and the protocol of June 21, interpreting the provisions, were to be signed.

The program was changed today so the Germans could sign earlier than under the original schedule. Clemenceau, Wilson, Lloyd-George and the two Germans signing the treaty at the center table, in the order named.

Signing of the protocol of the Rhine convention by the same delegates, at their seats, followed under the new program. Transfer of all documents to the center table so the other delegates could affix their signatures followed this step under the change.

The German credentials were approved this morning.

Dr. Mueller of the German delegation ordered a special train to be ready to start for Berlin at 9 p. m.

An official of the French foreign office obtained the German delegates' credentials at 9 a. m. and took them to the Quai d'Orsay for examination. The German signers still were in bed at 10 a. m.

Big crowds were in the streets at an early hour.

The Germans expressed fear the treaty might contain variations from the original Secretary Paul Dutasta of the peace conference thereupon delivered to Secretary Von Haniel of the German delegation a letter signed by Premier Georges Clemenceau, guaranteeing the copy signed would not vary from the text handed to Count Brockdorf-Rantzau, former head of the German commission.

German threats not to live up to treaty stipulations regarding the eastern boundary have been met by the Big Three with instructions to the Supreme War Council to take up consideration of the problem of getting munitions and war materials to the Polish army.

Colonel E. M. House, Lord Milner, Sir John Simon, Signor Crespi and Viscount Chinda have been appointed a special committee to draw up model mandates.

The question of Austrian reparations has been completed and the remainder of the Austrian treaty is expected to be presented at St. Germain on Monday.

In the Hall of Mirrors at the Palace there were places for representatives of nearly every race and creed in the world.

The big horseshoe table was on a platform elevated about a foot above the floor. In the center of the horseshoe space was a small table topped with brown leather, on which rested the treaty. One chair before this table was the seat for each delegate performing the act of signing.

At the eastern end of the hall the "salon de paix" was reserved for distinguished visitors, seating about 300. The "salon de guerre" was for the press and had seats for 60 Americans, 50 British, 60 French, 40 Italians, 25 Japanese, 15 Germans, 70 from small powers and 20 from neutral nations. In this salon special American telephone and telegraph lines were installed, to flash news of the signing to the cable office.

Prominent seats in the visitors' section were reserved for Mrs. Wilson and for Miss Margaret Wilson.

The courtyard was a blaze of military splendor, detachments of all allied armies with flags unfurled coming sharply to attention as the delegates arrived in automobiles.

MAYSVILLE CELEBRATES

Local Celebration of Signing of Peace Treaty Lasts But a Short Time—Bells Announce Peace.

The first word received in Maysville of the signing of the Peace Treaty came over the Postal Telegraph wires and immediately the information was conveyed to Mayor Thomas M. Russell, who had previously made arrangements for the bell in the fire hall to be sounded.

Every one was eagerly awaiting the news that the German delegates had signed and as soon as the fire bell began to sound others took up message and everyone in Maysville knew that the Peace Treaty had been signed in just a short time after the German delegates had affixed their signatures.

There was no automobile parade or demonstration such as was seen here when the armistice was signed but everyone was happy that the world war had been finally brought to a conclusion.

STATE NATIONAL BANK ELECTS 4 ADDITIONAL DIRECTORS TODAY

Prominent Citizens and Business Men Are Added to the Strong Directorate of the State National Bank at Meeting Today.

At a special meeting of the stockholders of the State National Bank and the State Trust Company held at the offices of the companies at Second and Court streets this morning four new directors were elected for both organizations.

Those elected to the directorate were Messrs. Thomas A. Keith, Mike Brannen, John I. Claybrooke and C. E. Galbreath. All four of these gentlemen are prominent in business affairs of the county. Mr. Keith has had quite an experience in the banking business here having been a director in local banks for several years. He was President of the First National Bank of this city, at the time of its merging with the Standard Bank and is one of the best known bankers in Mason county.

Mr. Brannen and Mr. Claybrooke are both prominent farmers in the county. Both are live, wide-awake and progressive while Mr. Galbreath is the popular sheriff of the county and one of the best known farmers of the Mayslick neighborhood.

All of these men chosen by the stockholders of the State National will add much strength to this popular institution. The stockholders are to be congratulated upon the selection of four such high class gentlemen.

These was a great crowd on Market street Friday night to hear the Maysville Band Concert and every time the band appears in public one can notice its great improvement. NOT DEAD

The Baraca Class is still much alive and those members who figured that the teacher would be off on vacation, figured themselves out of a mighty good discussion of "The greatest of These" love. The teacher will be present Sunday, June 29. Let's be there and hear what he has to say. Baraca class meets at 9:45.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall and sister, Miss Gertrude Dice, of Maysville, Ky., and aunt, Mrs. J. B. Blackman, of New Orleans, motored to Ewing for a visit with their sister-in-law, Mrs. William Dice.

S. A. CAMPAIGN WILL BE CONTINUED HERE NEXT WEEK

Because County's Quota Is Not Yet Reached Chairman Peed Announces a Continuation of the Campaign Into Next Week.

Mr. Alfred Peed, chairman of the Salvation Army campaign in Mason county Saturday announced that he had received permission from state headquarters in Lexington to continue the campaign in Mason county into another week that this county may have another opportunity to reach its total quota of $5,000.

Although county headquarters in Maysville had not received complete reports from all of the precinct workers in the county Saturday, Mr. Peed said that the campaign was dragging in some parts and that he expected that because of wet weather throughout the county the workers in the country precincts had been unable to do much real work among the residents of their precincts.

Reports from city precinct workers are to the effect that the campaign has moved very well here in the city but it has not gained the momentum that it should have and here too the campaign will be continued until every precinct in the city shall have met or passed its fixed apportionment.

There is every reason why the people should contribute liberally to the Salvation Army. If you don't know about the work this organization did during the war, ask any soldier.

SHOW TROUPE TRAVELS IN AUTOMOBILES

"Rector's Overland Show" is the name of a show troupe traveling overland in automobiles which is now showing in small towns in Brown and Adams counties, Ohio, near here. M. H. S. BOYS TO ATTEND HIGH SCHOOL CONFERENCE

Eight Maysville High School Boys Headed by Prof. C. S. Dale Will Attend Meeting at Camp Daniel Boone.

Arrangements are being made by Prof. C. S. Dale, principal of the Maysville High School, to take a company of some eight or nine M. H. S. boys to Camp Daniel Boone for a camping trip from August 25 to September 1 at which time the second annual Kentucky High School Conference will be held.

It will be remembered that eight of our local boys went to this camp last year and had a most enjoyable time. The period will be spent in conference that will be worth much to the young men and in sports that they will greatly enjoy. It will be an outing and an educational course combined. The mornings will be spent in conferences which will be led by some of the most prominent men in the state and during the afternoon and evening recreation will be enjoyed.

High School boys who desire to take the trip should get into communication with Prof. Dale at the earliest possible time.

STATE'S RURAL MEETING SERIES BEGINS MONDAY

Series of Meetings to Be Held For Rural Development Over the State Opens at Fern Creek on Next Monday.

The first of the meetings in the interest of rural development in Kentucky will open Monday with a three-day meeting in Fern Creek. All phases of rural life will be touched on during the Fern Creek meeting. Three overseas men who fought in the Argonne battle, with infantry, artillery and the marines, will be in charge.

From July 14 to 19 meetings will be held in Bell, Knox, Clay, Whitley, Laurel and Rockcastle counties. These rural chautauquas have the approval of the United States Department of Agriculture, the State Department of Agriculture, the College of Agriculture and its Extension Department, the State Departments of Education, Roads and Health; Kentucky University and the State Normal Schools.

Sixty counties of the State will be reached by the Rural Development Chautauqua, which desire better rural conditions. The project is the first of the kind ever attempted in the United States.

One of these meetings will be held in Mason county beginning the first of the month of August. Although it has not been definitely decided as yet, it is more than likely that the meeting will be held in Beechwood park. Arrangements are in the hands of County Agent George Kirk and others here who expect to make this Farmers' Chautauqua a very well worth while meeting for the farmers of Mason and adjoining counties.

Definite and complete announcement in regard to the meeting will be made as soon as possible.

Mr. Frank Duzan of Maysville, and Miss Edith McClanahan were married Friday morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. Carl Boyden, in Cincinnati.

OUR POLICY

To support such measures as are unquestionably for the good of Mason County as an entire community, rather than such propositions as are in favor of the individual interest, or of one section as against another. And likewise to earnestly and consistently oppose all things that are not for the good of the County as a whole.

SUPPORT MAYSVILLE FACTORIES

There has been some discussion recently about Maysville becoming a manufacturing city and one of our progressive young business men in an interview has suggested that the local Chamber of Commerce should spend more time and energy in bringing to Maysville manufacturing industries which would give employment to local men.

This interview leads us to think of the splendid small factories we now have and the wonderful opportunities for their growth into large and flourishing establishments.

While it is part of the duty of the Chamber of Commerce to induce plants to locate here, it is also the duty of that organization to stand behind those we already have. Maysville manufacturing establishments should have the wholehearted support of every Maysvillian and goods made in Maysville should be on the counters and shelves of every Maysville store.

If Maysville merchants handled and pushed Maysville made goods our present factories would soon grow into larger ones giving employment to many more people and bringing more money into the cash registers of Maysville merchants. And local merchants would handle and push Maysville made goods if Maysville people used them.

While we want all the factories we can get, we first want to stand solidly behind those we have. We do not propose to be suggesting to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce but our notion is that a campaign explicating the virtues of Maysville made goods would be a step in the right direction.

When possible buy in Maysville goods made in Maysville.

BIG PARTY FOR MASON SOLDIERS

Many Mason county men who saw service during the World War should spend the Fourth of July in Maysville. A big time is being planned by the home folks. It's going to be just one big party. No speeches to bore those attending and nothing to do but to have a good time.

The home folks want to see all of our boys together again and it will be an ideal time and place for the boys to meet their fellows in khaki.

No expense is being spared to make the occasion a record breaker—twelve hundred dollars will be spent to make it a success. It will prove a wonderful success if all of the Mason County Soldiers are on hand. The soldiers and their families should let nothing prevent them from spending the Fourth of July at Beechwood.

GREAT QUANTITIES OF FOOD HANDLED AT THE CANTEN

Red Cross Canteen at Toul Has Handled Tons of Food Stuff During Past Eleven Months.

Washington—Oceans of coffee, chocolate and lemonade, mountains of doughnuts and sandwiches and pyramids of ice cream were consumed by the 1,621,417 American doughboys who passed through the American Red Cross canteen at Toul during the last eleven months. The Toul refreshment station, long known as "one of the busiest Red Cross spots in France" is located in the original American battle sector at a point which enabled it to feed almost as many soldiers as there were in the American Expeditionary forces. Many interesting figures regarding the canteen's activities are contained in a report received today at Red Cross Headquarters.

American fighting men carried there long enough to eat 1,561,625 thickly-constructed, well-filled sandwiches and 461,114 doughnuts. During the big American troop movements in the Toul sector last June the canteen

WORDS FROM HOME

Statements That May Be Investigated. Testimony of Maysville Citizens.

When a Maysville citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Maysville resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

George H. King, prop., grocery 615 E. Second St., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills off and on for several years, getting them at Chancellor's Drug Store and I have been greatly benefited by them. Sometimes the kidney secretions have been irregular in passage. I have suffered severely with aches through the small of my back. When I have been in that way, I have used a box or two of Doan's Kidney Pills. They have never failed to cure the attack in quick order."

served 3,000 men a day, the soldiers of the Twenty-sixth, Seventy-seventh and Eighty-second divisions being cared for as they passed through in trains. No effort was made to keep track of the number of cigarettes and quantity of tobacco passed out to the men at this point. During the American offensive last September 18,000 soldiers received refreshments as they were carried into and evacuated from a hospital two miles outside of Toul. Originally the canteen was established in a fifty-foot tent in the railroad yard at Toul, but with the rapid increase in the number of men to be cared for the Red Cross took over an entire hotel close by for the work. As many as 7,000 soldiers have found lodgings there in a month, the number cared for in this way rarely dropping below 3,000 soldiers received meals there during the month of January. The shower baths have been used by 70,000 soldiers. General Pershing recently inspected the canteen and complimented the managers.

The American Red Cross Club for enlisted men at Trier, Germany, reports an interesting sign of the times. In the reading room the most popular table is one on which stands a globe of the world. This is consulted daily by groups of soldiers who have fairly worn grooves in its surface tracing pathways to other parts of the world. Books on South America, mechanics and agriculture lead in popularity.

Interested in Film Productions to Be Made at Methodist Celebration at Columbus, O.

DR. JAMES E. CROWTHER AND D. W. GRIFFITH.

The support of the motion picture world as represented by D. W. Griffith, well known film producer, was assured the Methodist Centenary Celebration at a conference in Columbus, the celebration being represented by Dr. S. Earl Taylor of New York, Dr. J. E. Crowther of Seattle, Dr. Fred Fisher of New York and Dr. C. F. Reiser of New York.

Mr. Griffith, in addition to promising to make a film of all important features of the Centenary Celebration, strongly urged the use of motion pictures in the advancement of religious work. He spoke strongly of the possibilities of the motion pictures under proper supervision being made to carry a religious message further than any known form of communication.

Dr. S. Earl Taylor, director general of the Centenary Celebration, made the statement that "we want pictures that talk the universal language. I believe the message of peace and good will should be preached to the world through pictures."

"I am glad to know they are going to give motion pictures a practical demonstration at the Centenary Celebration," said Mr. Griffith. "The celebration will give the people in towns and villages a wonderful opportunity to visit the entire world by going no further than Columbus. There will be an extraordinary impression produced by seeing these villages of China, Japan and India, not peopled by amateurish actors, but inhabited by real natives from foreign lands."

"I have been astounded beyond measure at the breadth, extent and scope of the entire scheme as it has been revealed to me by Dr. Taylor, Dr. Crowther, Dr. Reiser and others. I understand the Methodist Church has $140,000,000 and is going to celebrate its success with something more nearly resembling a world fair than anything else to which it can be compared. One would think that a great nation at least is behind the movement. Doubtless, something greater than the greatest nation is behind it—a reawakened ideal and faith inspired to bind up the wounds of a torn and outraged world."

Columbus Can Well Accommodate All Who Attend Methodist Celebration, Officials Say

NO CROWD which has been proposed for the Methodist Centenary Celebration will swamp Columbus, according to Mayor George J. Karb, who has received some inquiries from distant points regarding the ability of the Capital City to take care of the hundreds of thousands of Methodists coming from all over the United States for the Centenary Celebration, June 20 to July 13.

Mayor Karb says: "Columbus has always been equal to any situation. We are not going to fail the exposition crowds, no matter how many thousands there are. Tell them to come to Columbus town. We are ready with open hearts and open doors. Columbus can do it."

James T. Daniels, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, says: "We can easily and satisfactorily accommodate three hundred thousand visitors." Organizing Secretary H. B. Dickson says: "Three hundred thousand my minimum estimate of attendance. Confident Columbus can take care of twice that number."

Collection of Indian Curios at the Methodist Centenary Celebration

WHAT has been pronounced the greatest private collection of Indian curios in America has been loaned to the Methodist Centenary Celebration at Columbus, O., by H. feature.

W. Palm, an Indian trader of Ortonville, Minnesota. Mr. Palm is here shown with some of his interesting relics.

Indian exhibitions will have a considerable place in the Celebration. Pueblos will unconcernedly mold pottery before throngs of curious spectators, just as their grandfathers did before the white man invaded their lands. Navajos will weave rugs and St. Regis make basketry—all actually living in their native homes, be they pueblos or wigwags.

NO SEATS RESERVED

First Come, First Served, at Coliseum at Methodist Centenary

At a conference of Director General S. Earl Taylor, Dr. Fred B. Fisher, H. B. Dickson and other members of the Centenary Exposition staff, it was decided that there will be no seats reserved in the Coliseum for "The Wayfarer" pageant presentations at the Methodist Centenary Celebration, Columbus, O., June 20-July 13.

All seats will be available to spectators as soon as the doors of the Coliseum are opened each evening. "It will be a case of 'first come, first served,'" says Mr. Dickson. Season tickets to the exposition grounds admit the bearer once to the pageant in the Coliseum. Single admission fees at the gate require an additional fifty cents for the Coliseum evening

LIVES THREE WEEKS IN WOODS WITHOUT FOOD

Man Wanders From Brown County Infirmary and Remains Hid For Three Weeks—Found By Small Boy.

Georgetown (O.) News-Democrat says: While Isaac Sharf was picking berries upon White Oak creek hills, on what is known as the Blair farm, Monday morning, he was attracted to an aged man, who told him of his prostrate condition. The boy came to town at once, and notified the family of ewis Kattine, who notified Sheriff Miller, and he went to the spot and brought the man to the county jail. He proved to be Austin Malott, for whom a search has been made for three weeks past, he having left the County Infirmary without permission. Malott's son and people generally have been looking for him, without result. When Sheriff Miller picked the man up to carry him, he found that he had fallen away until there was little remainin. Malott was questioned and stated that during the three weeks he had had to eat only sprouts and such vegetation as he could gather. Dr. Shelton was called when Malott reached the jail and only a little water was permitted, which was followed after a few hours with a small quantity of milk. It will be some time before he can be brought back to his former condition. He was taken to the Infirmary from Eagle township and gives his age as 59 years.

Health About Gone

Many thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Ithaca, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly," she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. . . . had us get Cardui. . . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Cardui did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

TAKE

CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

She writes further: "I am in splendid health . . . can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition. If you are nervous, run-down and weak, or suffer from headache, backache, etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health, like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

To the GOOD PEOPLE of the FOURTH WARD

The Salvation Army has called on us to raise $225. You can ask the boys who have returned from over sea and they all agree, "take your hat off to the Salvation Army." They were our friends and now is the time to show them that we who stayed at home appreciate what they done for our boys. Today the campaign commences. Help us raise this amount in our Ward.

The Stories The Dewdrops Told

VIII. MOTHERMINE TELLS DOLLY ABOUT THE PLANT BABIES

"Mothermine," said Dolly, "what do you suppose the Bean Fairy meant by the 'plant babies'?"

Mothermine was not surprised by the sudden question. Other children might "Break out" with measles and chicken-pox, but Dolly "broke-out" with questions.

"Who is the Bean Fairy?" said Mothermine; "And what did he say about plant babies?"

"He is one of the Dewdrop Fairies, and he said the reason the bean grew upside down was so it could feed the bean-baby. Wasn't that funny?"

"Suppose you tell me something about it," said Mothermine. She was a very nice mother and was never too busy to answer questions. And she seemed to know a great many things.

So Dolly told her about the Fairy on the vine that had invited her to come into the garden every morning and look into the dewdrops. She told about the radish that grew with his head down in the ground, and the bean that came up the wrong way, and about "Mr. Worm."

"A worm!" said Mothermine.

"Oh, do not spurn the lowly worm," said Dolly. "He was very polite and said lovely poetry. I shall never run away from worms again. But I don't understand about plant babies. I thought babies were only human—except kitten babies and—oh, yes! dear little bunny babies, and puppies."

"Well, I expect the plants have babies, too, if we only knew how to look for them. Bring me a butter-bean and let's see if we can find the baby."

That was the best thing about Mothermine. She always wanted to help you find out things for yourself.

Dolly was soon at her side with a nice plump butter-bean.

"Oh, Mothermine," she said; "I wish you could have been the bean fairy—he had such a funny long, pale face, and a long body and a green coat—this really does look like him. What are you going to do with it?"

"I think I will split it into two pieces," said Mothermine.

"But won't that hurt it?" Dolly was very tender and gentle with everything.

"Well, of course, if we take it to pieces it can never grow and be a bean vine, but perhaps we can spare one vine just to find out what we want to know."

She gently parted the two sides of the bean and there, between the pieces was a little, curled up something that really did look like a baby plant. It was very, very small, and Dolly looked at it with big eyes.

"It is so little that I can't see what it looks like."

"Let me hold my magnifying glass over it," said Mothermine. "Now look."

"Oh, oh!" cried the little girl. "It is just like a tiny vine all folded up. I can see leaves—why, it is almost like looking in the fairy's dewdrop."

"That tiny, baby plant," said Mothermine; "will grow up into a vine that will have many beans on it. But it has to be fed and taken care of just like a human baby—or a bunny baby. Hand me that picture on my dressing table, Dolly."

Dolly ran to bring the picture in its bright silver frame.

"This is a picture of you when you were a little baby. You could not do a thing for yourself. If I had not fed you and kept you warm and done everything for you, you would never have grown into the big girl you are now. In the same way the plant has to feed its little babies. The earth keeps them warm and the sun and the rain and the fresh air feed them. After a while they grow up into beans, or perhaps, some other kind of vegetable or plant. If you watch you can see just how they grow from babies into full grown plants."

"Oh, I know another kind of baby, too—the little chicken babies! I think they are the nicest of all. But they don't come up out of the ground, do they?"

"No, indeed—you know better than that, Dolly. You know the little chicks come out of the eggs—they are egg-babies."

"But, Mothermine, please tell me how is the egg changed into a chicken and the plant-baby into a bean or a radish?"

"The best way for you to find out about that is to look into our dewdrops every morning and let the fairies tell you about it. And if you want to get up early tomorrow and see what is going on in the garden, it is time for you to get to bed this minute."

ute." Dolly did not even say, "Please let me stay up just one minute longer," as she used to do, but went to bed in a hurry so she could be up with the dewdrops in the morning.

The duty of the switchboard operator is to answer your number calls and get connections for you.

If she stopped to answer questions, the number of calls would pile up and the service would be delayed; this would be an injustice to the other subscribers.

REPORT THAT CROWN PRINCE ESCAPED FALSE

Official Investigation Made By Holland Discloses That Frederick Had Not Left His Residence.

The Hague, June 28.—Crown Prince Frederick William Hohenzollern, the former German crown prince, whose escape from Holland to Germany had been reported, was still at his residence on the Island of Wieringen in the Zuyder Zee Friday morning, it was officially announced here this afternoon.

The fact that the former crown prince was still at Wieringen was disclosed by an official investigation made by the Dutch minister of the interior.

The crown prince has not been absent from his home on the Island of Wieringen for some time, a Havas from the Hague says.

The report of the escape of the former German crown prince from Holland, where he has been interned virtually since the cessation of hostilities, was explained today as follows:

"The announcement was made to the American peace delegation by the British Intelligence Department. It was then sent to the Council of Four, which at the moment, was in session, and announced to the newspaper correspondents by an American press official.

"No statement has been made as to the source from which the British Intelligence Department received the original report."

OHIO ON THE RISE

The Ohio river at this point is again on the rise but rivermen give it as their opinion that we will not have a large river here. It is to be hoped that there will be nothing like a bottom flood as much garden truck would be ruined and quite a bit of tobacco been set on creek banks and bottoms in this section that would be ruined.

LIVELY DEBATE ON TEXTBOOK COMMISSION BY EDITORS

Mrs. Faulconer, Only Woman Member Of Board, Answers Colonel Polk Johnson.

Louisville, Ky., June 28.—Resolutions indorsing the Towner bill now before Congress were adopted by the Kentucky Press Association yesterday after Mrs. Cora Wilson Stewart, chairman of the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission, had made a plea in this behalf. Governor Henry J. Allen, of Kansas, was the principal speaker at the morning session in the red room of the Seelbach.

The session was enlivened by sharp debate on the textbook commission. Mrs. Nannie G. Faulconer, the only woman member of the commission, which has been under fire, dramatically defended the commission after Colonel E. Polk Johnson, in concluding an address strongly condemned that body.

Mrs. Faulconer, who is County School Superintendent in Fayette county, wept as she upheld the honesty of purpose which, she explained, guided the commission in its textbook deliberations.

Colonel Johnson, of Louisville, turned on the textbook commission after an address in which he warmly complimented the work done by the Kentucky Illiteracy Commission.

When he concluded his references to the textbook body Mrs. Faulconer sprang to her feet and in an excited tone declared she thought it her duty to defend the commission. She asserted vehemently that many of the men on the commission are good, honorable men, and she said she wanted the Kentucky Press Association to consider seriously the matter before condemning the textbook body.

Harry Sommers, of Elizabethtown, at this point stated that the Kentucky Press Association had never taken a stand on such a matter as was spoken of in view of its political connection.

President D. H. Hutton, also said that the matter would be left open, without action taken definitely either way.

GREAT FIREWORKS DEMONSTRATION AT BEECHWOOD ON 4th

Committee Planning For Big Party For Returned Soldiers Will Arrange Great Fire Works Celebration — Big Program Planned For Night.

Members of the various committees arranging for the big Soldiers and Sailors' party to be given here on the Fourth of July continue busy working out all of their details and one big feature which was decided upon Friday night was a great fireworks demonstration beginning promptly at 9 o'clock on the night of the Fourth. Arrangements have been made by the committee with a big Cincinnati fireworks concern to furnish the excitement on this score and a special representative of the manufacturers will be here to erect the fireworks and to touch it off properly. This big feature is expected to attract many here for the evening who might spend the day elsewhere or who because of other duties may not be able to attend in the afternoon.

The parade committee is also completing their plans for a huge demonstration through the streets. Prizes of $20, $15 and $10 are being offered for the best decorated automobile or float. The parade will likely form at Market and Third streets and move thru all of the main streets of the city to Beechwood.

The publicity committee has arranged for several large banners bearing the inscription "Welcome Home" which will be swung across prominent street corners and the management of the local novelty stores have promised to have plenty of flags and bunting on hand for sale to everyone who wants to decorate and the committee is anxious that every building in the city be decorated in some manner if only flags are hung out on the residences and business houses.

Bear in mind that this is to be the biggest and best Fourth of July celebration ever held in North Eastern Kentucky and everyone is invited. The Mason county soldiers and sailors are urged to attend in their uniforms. The party is for them and the people want to see them all together.

MAYSVILLE FOLKS HEAR FIRST SERMON DELIVERED FROM AIR

Prominent Divine Speaks Through Megaphone From Dirigible Balloon at Columbus, Ohio.

Maysville people heard from a height of 300 feet above an immense crowd at the Methodist centenary celebration at Columbus Friday afternoon Dr. Edward Soper deliver a sermon through a megaphone from the decks of the big army dirigible A-4, which came there Friday from Akron under command of Major Clarence Maranville. Dr. Soper's voice could be heard distinctly. The sermon was about 300 words in length.

Fog and a stiff breeze conspired against Major Maranville and his fellow flyers in making the trip from Akron in the big dirigible.

Leaving Akron at 4:45 a. m., the dirigible encountered a shift of the wind and dense fog shortly after leaving the grounds. Passing over what they believed was Wooster, the first stage in their aerial journey, they were blown out of their course, making Mt. Vernon, Washington C. H., Somerset and finally New Lexington, southeast of their Columbus goal.

Five hours and twenty-five minutes after the start they landed 1,000 yards northeast of the race track oval on the centenary grounds.

With Major Maranville on the trip there were Civilian Pilot James Shade, First Lieutenant Don L. Hutchins and Second Lieutenant Frank Krick. The return trip will be in charge of Pilot Shade, with Second Lieutenant P. J. Vollmar as assistant pilot and Second Lieutenants Laurence R. Heath and Donald F. Purdy as passengers.

Former President William H. Taft, was the principal speaker at the exposition Friday—Sunday School Day. Mr. Taft, with other speakers of national reputation, spoke on various phases of Sunday School work.

Friday night Mr. Taft was the guest of honor at a dinner in the Masonic Temple. Arrangements had been made to seat 1,000 persons.

Centenary officials estimated that Friday's attendance exceeded 60,000.

To Own My Home

Every normal man and woman wants a home—of their own. This June, there are many young couples, just starting out in life, that have an idea they will rent a home for a while. Don't do it, especially if, its in the country. Buy your farm, at the very beginning and then it's yours for keeps. Just hesitate a minute and read this.

FOR SALE—The Manley Bros. farm of 137 acres four miles above Aberdeen, in the bottoms. 112 acres are bottom land and the balance is rolling. Ideal tobacco land. There is a splendid large house on it that could not be built today for $5,000, practically new. Good barns and other buildings. All within twenty-five minutes ride of Maysville.
